

No Waste Down the Sinks

The great majority of waste generated in the lab is NOT ALLOWED to go down the sink and must be submitted for commercial chemical waste disposal.

This includes washing acetone / ethanol and other common solvents and solutions thereof.

The only exception is neutralised aqueous waste that does not contain any hazardous biological (i.e. after treatment) or chemical components.

